Media Conduct Policy

AOPA Aviation Summit media attendees must conduct themselves in accordance with the rules and regulations of the hosting facility and in a manner that is not offensive to decency or good taste. Actions deemed detrimental to the success of the show are unacceptable. This includes, but is not limited to, disturbances or demonstrations of any kind. Any action deemed a violation of this media conduct policy may result in expulsion from the AOPA Aviation Summit.

Print/Radio/Television/Web Media Policies

1. Anyone planning to cover any portion of the AOPA Aviation Summit for broadcast or publication must register with AOPA to receive appropriate media credentials.
2. AOPA media credentials allow access to the exhibit hall floor during exhibit hours only, except by special arrangement made through the AOPA communications department.
3. All exhibitors retain the right to refuse photography of their booths.
4. All keynote speeches and AOPA-conducted interviews will occur in the exhibit area on the AOPA LIVE stage. AOPA will provide a camera riser and audio mult box to organizations wishing to record audio and/or video from the AOPA LIVE stage. Any additional technical requests must be provided to AOPA at least two hours in advance.
5. Camera crews must not block the flow of traffic in or around the AOPA Aviation Summit.
6. Live broadcasts, webcasts and web streaming requests must be approved in advance in writing by AOPA prior to arrival and set up at the AOPA Aviation Summit.
7. Live web streaming by non-AOPA entities may take place only from a single fixed location. No roving live web streams or live webcams are allowed.
8. Credentialed media must follow the directions of AOPA officials and on-site security personnel.
9. Credentialed media must adhere to all policies in this section governing media coverage of the AOPA Aviation Summit.

Acknowledgement of policies

Acceptance of your media credentials acknowledges that you understand and agree to all AOPA Aviation Summit media policies. This acceptance is a specific condition of your admittance to the event. Any violation of this policy may result in forfeiture of all media credentials for the media outlet.
